

Today

We welcome Fr. Tom as our Celebrant this morning.

Next Sunday

We will celebrate the Baptism of Nathaniel Ellis and welcome him into the Body of Christ here at St. Laurence. Please pray for him and his family as they prepare for this important occasion.

Together Online

Is an exciting email letter that will be launched in August, to keep everyone up to date with what is happening in the Catholic Societies and parishes affiliated to The Society. It will be released quarterly, in addition to the Together newspaper, and will include all of the latest news, as well as upcoming events and other things which we hope will be of interest. To

Old Shoes Please

The Charity Shoe Aid is collecting old shoes. Rather than sending shoes to landfill, Shoe Aid collect them and looks to re-use them for the millions of people in this country and abroad who cannot afford proper shoes - and in the process to teach people the craft of shoe repairing. If you are able to donate any old shoes there will be a box at the back of church.

PLEASE NOTE

The Mass with confirmations on Sunday 1st September will be at 10.00am to allow those from Holy Trinity sufficient time to attend. There are 8 candidates, 5 from St. Laurence and 3 from Holy Trinity, Please remember them in your prayers as they prepare for this important step in their Christian discipleship.

The Food Bank

Are appealing for desperately needed donations of food for the homeless and needy. There is a box at the back of church for your contributions of goods
